Undertaking a New Strategy

Starting Today.

Better Opportunities For Single Soldiers

Our Doctrine & Command Driven Program

- AR 215-1
- DA Circular 608-01-1
- Policy Letter CSM-01-02

Our Given Three Core Components are:

- Quality Of Life Issues:
  - Barracks Conditions & Policies
  - Dining Facilities
  - Transportation
  - Educational Opportunities
  - Sprint Barracks Phone Program
  - Washers and Dryers
- Leisure and Recreation:
  - Unit Sponsored Activities & Support.
- Community Service:
  - Special Olympics
  - MWR Events
  - Community Foundation Support
  - Habitat for Humanity
  - Food for Families
  - Delayed Entry Program Tours
  - Opportunity to Make a Difference Day

Goal and Objective

- To establish a well-structuralized pro-active BOSS Program. One that is effective in or at every level possible in providing and reaching the 13th SCE single and all soldiers who wish to participate.

- The Philosophy:

  Soldiers are entitled to surface QoL issues, plan recreational events, and contribute to their local communities. A great tool to develop young Soldiers to be future leaders.

How We Do It?

- Our Mission:

  Act as a channel for input and feedback for single and unaccompanied soldiers between the installation staff and the chain of command.

- In other words:

  Find out what single soldiers want and get them involved in making it happen under our three core components within our doctrine and the support of the chain of command of each respective units.

Better Communication, Better Service

- Cohesive teamwork
- Reaching the soldiers
- Providing BOSS

Recommendations

- Know your unit BOSS representatives, primaries and alternates and at every level within the 13th SCE and its subordinates.

- Contact your representatives whenever you have the time and certain issues, ideas and so forth. Attend the single soldiers' meetings. Ask them questions frequently so you know what is happening and available as we will do our part to inform you as well.

- Provide your support by getting involved and participate. Always, your contributions to the program are welcomed. We are here and there for you in helping your stay at Fort Hood be as smooth as possible.
